Glossary

Term	Definition
Asynchronous online training	Self-paced distance-learning programs facilitate continuous enrollment. The length of time to complete the course is determined by the individual student's available time, skill and commitment levels. The term is most commonly applied to various forms of digital and online learning in which students learn from instruction - such as prerecorded video lessons or game-based learning tasks that students complete on their own - and is not being delivered in person or in real time.
Blended Learning	A combination of distance learning and traditional classroom instruction. Student attends some of the training on-site and participate in some of the training online.
FMT	Fellow Member Trainer of the IANLP (accredited NLP teaching trainer)
Hybrid training	A combination of 'face-to-face, on-site training' and 'synchronous online learning'. Some students are training in 'on-site' fashion while other students are simultaneously participating in online learning activities.
Learning Time	'Total Learning Time' consists of - Curricular Training = in-school training and - Extra-Curricular Training = additional out-of-school training (homework, peer groups, study of literature, pursuit of projects, thesis writing)
Live Training	Consists of either ' Synchronous Online Training ' or ' On-site Training '.
Online Training or Distance Learning	Teaching students who are not physically present in class. Training that is being delivered through digital networks (internet). Online training is distinguished between → synchronous and → asynchronous online training.
On-site training	Students and trainers are physically present at the same time and at the same geographical location (house and/or classroom). Also called: " in-the-room " and/or " in situ" training.

Synchronous online training	Online learning format that requires students and teachers to be "present" at the same time (synchronously). Learners commence and complete a course at the same time under continuous observation by the trainer.

Duration of Training: 6 days and 50 hours

A minimum of 50 hours of curricular live training is required. This curricular training must consist of a minimum of 6 days with a total of 50 hours of live training (100% attendance is required).
